THE PRESIDENT

DR. R. W. LLOYD

Our president, Dr. Lloyd, has distinguished himself both nationally and internationally. This last summer the World Presbyterian Alliance, which is composed of 78 Presbyterian and Reformed Churches in 50 countries, elected him as its head.

His years as head of Maryville College began just before the time from which the college has progressed rapidly. Most apparent in recent years has been the addition of a Fine Arts Center and Theater, the rebuilding of the chapel, and the opening of the New Women's Dormitory. New faculty members have been on the increase as well as new courses offered.

Maryville College under Dr. Lloyd has, in addition to a distinguished past to recollect, a brilliant future to anticipate. A ten-year building plan has been initiated with the construction of a new Science Building next on the agenda. Even greater numbers will graduate from Maryville in the years to come; and, perhaps greater numbers of distinguished alumni will revisit its campus.

THE DEANS

FRANK D. McCLELLAND, B.A., M.S., LL.D.

Dean of the College

Dean McClelland is confined primarily to the administrative duties of the college. These prove almost indefinable as one, covers so many areas such as college policy, curriculum and guidance. In connection with these obligations, Dean McClelland often represents the college among inter-collegiate councils, and other interested groups. On a more personal basis, he aids students with his foresight and insight along academic and vocational lines. Dean McClelland is well respected to a high degree by faculty and students for his objectivity, and friendliness in every area of a difficult job involving every phase of the college program.

E. FRANCIS MASSEY, B.A., M.S.

Dean of Women

With her warm, friendly smile, Dean Massey accomplishes her tasks as Dean of Women with great efficiency. Never has this been more evident than this year when during the first semester her arm was broken and she cheerfully continued her exhaustive duties. It is her responsibility to co-ordinate the many campus social activities and maintain smooth procedure—a duty fulfilled one hundred per cent. Under her guidance the New Women's Honor Dormitory was initiated in the fall of 1950. Of all her characteristics perhaps Miss Massey's fairness is best known and most appreciated by Maryville College students both women and men.

ARTHUR S. BUSHING, B.A., M.A.

Dean of Men

Dean Bushing carries a double responsibility as Dean of Men and an instructor in the English Department. He is esteemed by all students for his idealism, coupled with scholarship and a keen wit. This year he acquired the additional reputation of being a skilled wood carver. Mr. Bushing serves in his capacities well for he both inspires his classroom students and serves as an excellent advisor while in the Dean's office.

THE STUDENT COUNCIL

OFFICERS

DAVID W. MORRIS . . . . . President

MICHAEL TALLEY . . . . . Vice-President

JOYCE T. MORRIS . . . . . Secretary

The Student Council represents Maryville College students in their government, members consisting of a cross-section of the student body. The president of each class belongs, in addition to the elected representatives of the class. Freshmen and Sophomores choose four members, while Juniors and Seniors select five. Also included in the membership are the president of Women's Student Government Association and the chairman of Men's Student Cooperative. The entire student body elects the Student Council president, who is necessarily a senior, and the vice-president may be either a junior or a senior.

The Council holds as its objective to administer the major policies of Maryville College through cooperation with the administration, the faculty, and the students. Their chief aim is to promote the views of the student body with respect to the academic, social, and spiritual phases of campus life. In addition to representing the views of the students at Maryville, they represent them in neighboring colleges and universities.

Student Council meets each week to discuss the current affairs of Maryville College and through a united effort of both Council and Student-Faculty Senate, regulates and enforces policies made with the Executive Council of the Faculty. Furthermore, Student Council directs the initiating and conducting of campus-wide elections, such as Student body president and vice-president, homecoming queen and the May Court.

It is the Council's duty to suggest needed changes in the regulation of the rules and to maintain the strict obedience of these regulations.

The Student Council is, indeed, vital to the entire organization of Maryville College. It should be the aim of every student to support it.

GOVERNING BOARD

DR. HUNTER — STEVE MOUTON

CHARLOTTE CATHEY — SUE FOWELL

Writers' Workshop, holding weekly meetings for more years than any other organization on the Maryville College campus, keeps as its definite aim the encouragement and fostering of creative writing. However, the Workshop this year has begun a new program. The first semester of the year members devoted their talents to poetry, while during second semester they were concerned with prose in various forms, primarily the short story. Members work together, criticizing and aiding one another in their literary endeavors with the goal of publishing "Chips," the Workshop's official annual publication.

New honors won this year added to the Maryville College Debate Team's impressive record. The team is coached by Dr. Walker and is open to anyone interested. College credit is given at the end of the second semester and opportunity is given to the more facile for election into Pi Kappa Delta, the national honorary society for debators. In competition with other outstanding colleges and universities in local, regional, and national tournaments, Maryville has consistently brought home top honors, in individual as well as team competition.

First the editorial staff, headed this school year by Charlotte Cathey, concerns itself with the writing and editing of news, features, editorials, and various creative endeavors. And secondly, the business staff, under the management of Don Buddle, is responsible for the advertisements which, along with a portion of the student activities fund, finance the "Echo."

Determining "to have a part in making this life possible for all people," the scope of its program and service ranges from managing the Y Store to providing recreation at the Home Avenue and Sunnybrook missions in the community.

Joining with the Y.M.C.A., its major activities include Y-Radio, the M-Book, Nu Gamma and Ten Key Men programs, and many others.

Through worship, study, fun, and action, the "Y" seeks to supplement the academic program, contributing to the total education and expression of the Maryville College woman.

Associated with the national Y.M.C.A., the Y.M.C.A. of Maryville College plays a very important role in the College life in that it fulfills the Christian needs of the men residing on campus.

Their purpose is to seek Christian growth and development by action both on campus and in the community.

In cooperation with the Y.W.C.A., it furnishes many outstanding activities, including the Fred Hope Fund, all-campus prayer meetings, retreats, mountain hikes, Barnwarming, Christmas Readings, publishing Lenten season pamphlets, doing mission work, planning an extensive welcome and orientation of the freshmen and transfer students, and many more activities, all of which go into the development of Christian life in the Maryville area.

KEY MEN

The Key Men are chosen by the Y.M.C.A. vice-president on the basis of integrity, initiative, leadership ability and general outstanding service to the organization and campus. Their first duty is to assist in the annual "Y" Welcome program, especially in welcoming freshmen and other new students. The Big-Little Brother program and party is handled by this group, and they take the lead in working on the Homecoming float and Barnwarming in conjunction with the Nu Gamma leaders.

Each year fifteen girls are chosen from the Sophomore Class as Nu Gamma Leaders. As counselors they must possess genuine interest, good personality, leadership ability and knowledge of available resources on campus. The words for which the letters Nu Gamma stand mean "new girl," therefore the purpose of a leader is to represent Maryville College to the incoming freshman. Through summer letters, Y Welcome, early meetings, and many parties, a Nu Gamma Leader becomes a friend and counsellor. Until the new girl discovers Maryville for herself, her Nu Gamma Leader is Maryville College.

ART CLUB

Each semester an art show provides the campus and townspeople with a look at student work. Anyone who has ever meandered through this exhibit and been struck by the talent displayed may have wondered what lay behind all this work.

The secret lies in a small, bright, well used room hidden in the rear of the building behind the exhibit. An informal atmosphere gives incentive to true creativity. One sees around the workroom water colors, oils, charcoal and ink drawings, ceramics, and even some examples of public school art, done by children. These are all displayed at the first art show. The second semester show is largely devoted to sculpture, advanced oils, graphics, and pastels. The workroom is pervaded by an atmosphere of activity.

The art department, headed by Mr. Richard Beard certainly is one of the most volatile in school. Both art students and non-majors gain a deeper appreciation of the history and application of art in its message, technique, and accomplishment throughout the ages. The department performs an important function, not only in the instruction and training of art talent, but also in helping to fulfill the aesthetic needs of a liberal arts curriculum.

MR. HARRY H. HARTER

The Vesper Choir has taken an important place in the musical realm of Maryville College. With concentration on sacred composition, it has appeared in various public performances, contributing to the spirit of the Vesper services on Sunday evenings. The highlight of the first semester was the performance with the Knoxville Symphony, directed by Mr. David Van Vactor. Featured were renderings of recent compositions by Mr. Van Vactor and Mr. Harter.

In the spring the annual tour took the choir to the Northeastern states, for performances in several churches and schools. On their return, they presented the annual Home Concert.

Genuine appreciation of music, devoted time and talent, and concentrated effort combine to help make the choir what it is: the guide still remains the excellent direction of Mr. Harry H. Harter.

On December 6, 1959, for the twenty-seventh time, Maryville College and community blended their voices in a moving presentation of Handel's "Messiah." There were nearly three hundred participants in the chorus alone, which was composed of members of the Vesper Choir, the Women's Choir, the Men's Glee Club, and other community members, students and faculty. The chorus was accompanied by the college and community orchestra, which rehearsed under the direction of Mr. Bernard Linger. For eight weeks the chorus prepared for the singing of most of the vocal ensembles of the work, while soloists, chosen from the group, prepared for their respective contributions to the combined effort. Mr. Harry Harter directed the performance for the eleventh year. One of the most anticipated and outstanding events of the college year, "Messiah" never fails to instill an awesome humility within the hearts of those who attend as well as participate, as each realizes the magnificence of this remarkable work and the message which it imparts.

GLEE CLUBS

The Men's Glee Club and the Women's Choir are organizations for those who enjoy singing various types of music, that is, anything from sacred anthems to standard show tunes. They may perform as two groups or one, but they are always under the direction of Mr. Dan Kinsinger. Once a month one or both groups take the place of the Vesper Choir during the Vesper Service. Other performances include the "Fall Serenade," which this year centered around excerpts from Broadway shows; and the spring operetta, which for the second year was presented cooperatively with the Drama Department. At Christmas these organizations join the community in performing the Messiah, and with the Vesper Choir, present Christmas Vespers. An all-campus social event sponsored by the Glee Clubs is the Jeans Drag, a comic dance held each spring. Various social activities are enjoyed within the groups. Whether a meeting be rehearsal, involving concentrated work, or a social gathering, involving lighthearted fun, it is spiced by "Mr. K's" witticisms and enjoyed by all.

The Maryville College-Community Orchestra lends a fine cultural aspect to the campus and the community. Of the 37 pieces in the group, 25% are town people, which helps create a feeling of greater friendship between the two. Under the leadership of Mr. Linger, the group plans to give two concerts and to accompany other productions on campus, such as "Messiah."

A variety of types of music was played this year, including classical, romantic, and contemporary. This variety supplied the group with a wide knowledge and interest.

"Broke" started the season, and some of Chekov's works were featured in the spring. Major productions were "The Matchmaker," by Wilder, in the fall; "Doll's House," by Ibsen, in the spring; and "The Lark," by Hellman, for commencement. The ranks in Playhouse are Journeyman, Player, and Master Player. But playhouse is not all acting—there are committees for properties, scenery, lights, costumes—plenty of work for hard-working people.

Playhouse also assumes supervision of the Film Series, which brings to the students great films of the past at a reduced rate. The 1959-60 season included such films as "The Mikado" and "Romeo and Juliette."

The highest honor a Playhouse member can receive is to become a member of Theta Alpha Phi, national honorary dramatic society. The Maryville group is the Tennessee Beta Chapter. Membership, which is limited to 1% of the campus population, may be granted to students who have attained the rank of Player and have experience in three fields of dramatic work: acting, directing, and producing. The members are active in all phases of Playhouse and the campus in general.

The Women's Student Government Association is made up of two representatives from each class. These members represent the entire female student body and their purpose is to provide a limited self-government for the women of the college. Their realm of jurisdiction is to keep order and harmony in the women's dormitories and to report any infractions of W.S.G.A. rules. This also includes keeping the existing rules up to date and maintaining the enforcement of campus sign-out system.

The W.S.G.A. works with the Student Council and the Administration in granting Junior and Senior women's privileges and in working with all the women of the college in abiding by the rules as set forth by its constitution, and the executive council of the faculty.

Its purpose is the establishment and maintenance of orderly dormitory life and the promotion of good will and mutual concern within the group. They serve as an active voice of the men in general and serve as a body in which ideas and suggestions may be reviewed or revised.

The Cooperative Council forms a link between the men in the dormitories and the College to see that the spirit of responsibility is established on the part of the entire male student body.

THE MARYVILLE BAND

MR. BERNARD LINGER

Football fans saw the fine precision of the Highlander Marching Band this year, with varied pre-game and halftime shows. Featured in the fall were two outstanding groups, the drummers and a trumpet trio. A part of every halftime show were the bagpipes giving out strains of authentic Scottish tunes. Much of the season's success may be attributed to the Highlander Majorettes, who, as a result of many hours of practice and perfecting, exhibited their talents in dance routines and special features, such as fire-baton twirling. Always a special attraction, they have now become a necessary part of football festivities. The entire band accompanied the football team to Emory-Henry during the season.

This year's annual Homecoming was centered around the theme "Disneyland." This event, which is sponsored by the Alumni Association and engineered by the Pep Committee, brings to the campus many alumni who join the students in enjoying the parade, the gridiron clash, and the after-game dance.

Alpha Sigma and Theta Epsilon, using a variation on "Captain Hook and the Crocodile," jointly produced the year's first-prize float. Other participants were Chi Beta, Kappa Phi, the "Y's," and Pearsons and Baldwin dormitories.

Contributing to the color and festivity of the afternoon parade were the Highlander Band and the Cheerleaders. Queen Lessie Ann Rhodes, senior music major from Louisville, Kentucky, reigned over the evening events with Attendants Gail Bradley and Peggy Reid.

ARTISTS SERIES

The 1959-1960 Maryville College-Community Artists Series was one of the most successful in many years. The eighty-piece Atlanta Symphony under the direction of Henry Sopkin, featuring Lillian Kallir as piano soloist, proved to be an outstanding performance. It marked the first appearance of a full symphony orchestra in the history of the Maryville Artists Series.

One of the highlights of the season was the appearance of Walter Carringer, one of the outstanding tenors in America, and a native of Blount County. He captured the audience from the moment he appeared on the stage.

The Spring performances included the return of Players Incorporated in their production, "Comedy of Errors." They appeared previously in Maryville in 1958. Later in the spring Bizet's opera "Carmen" was presented by the National Grass Roots Opera Company closing a very remarkable and successful season.

FEBRUARY MEETINGS

On the Maryville College campus February holds a special meaning. During this month meetings, known as the February Meetings, emphasize and rejuvenate the college's religious spirit. Begun in 1887, this year marked the 84th that these meetings have been held at Maryville.

The entire schedule is rearranged for the February Meetings. The chapel is moved from the early eight o'clock hour until the middle of the morning and is increased from twenty minutes to an hour. In the evenings all activities are halted or postponed in order that students may attend the worship services.

Music is of great importance in these meetings. Dr. Henry Barraclough, Assistant Stated Clerk of the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church, returned for his ninth year to play the piano. And, of course, "Barrie's" hymn "Ivory Palaces" sounded more beautiful than ever.

NEW COACH, NEW TEAM

Coaches Hill, Baird, Tomlinson

The Maryville football team took the field with a dark and dismal forecast hovering over them. With a new coach, a new team, and an enlivened student body, the team soon overcame its inexperience and began to click and function as a unit.

The season opened at home against Howard College of Alabama. Maryville's biggest scoring threat came in the first quarter after McClanahan had returned a punt thirty-seven yards. After the Bulldogs received a 15-yard clipping penalty, the Scots had the ball on the Howard 26. But our greatest weakness—the lack of a strong offense—halted the "big orange drive." End Rufus Bowers, tackles Art Fairchild and Tom Bass were among the standouts in the Scottie forward wall as they combined to hold Howard to a 14-0 win.

The Maryville-Morehead, Kentucky, game was just as lopsided as the 53-0 indicates. In rolling to the easy victory, Morehead amassed 580 yards to the Scotties' 98.

The Centre College Colonels struck for two touchdowns in the first quarter and held on for a 23-6 victory. Halfback Tyson McClanahan raced around end to pick up a first and ten on the midfield stripe. Davis hit McClanahan on the Centre 30 for another first down. Story cracked off tackle to the 10 and from there McClanahan carried the pigskin over.

Our improved Highlanders took on the Georgetown Tigers for their fourth game. Though outweighed at every position, the Tigers tamed the Scotties 14-0. Maryville three times had opportunities to hit paydirt, but the Highlander offense bogged down each time.

M. C. suffered its fifth consecutive loss to Emory and Henry Wasps 46-12. The Maryville touchdowns were recorded by a Davis-to-McClanahan pass which sailed 80 yards and for the second Scot score, Ken Chambers went over from the 2. The best aerial offense in many a game was displayed in this game as the Scots gained 193 yards in the air.

Sewanee did not help a gloomy Homecoming Day: the Highlanders got beaten 22-6. The Scots posed their only scoring threat of the game in the second quarter and crashed in on the scoreboard by going 54 yards in five plays behind the passing of quarterback Jim Renfro and the running of halfback Doug Mincy.

Lenoir-Rhyne soon showed the M. C. team why it was rated as one of the best small teams in the country. The North Carolina team completely outclassed the Scots to walk off to a 68-0 victory.

The headline read "Scots Edge Carson-Newman;" the bell rang and rang; the student body shouted itself hoarse; the coach and team were carried off the field; the girls were given late permission to join a victory snake dance

—all these added to the Scottie conquest of our arch rivals, the Eagles of Carson-Newman. It may have taken sixteen games for a victory, but if all our victories can come like this one, it would be well worth the wait. The whole team was the hero, but Jim Renfro stood out singly, as his pair of extra points turned out to be the winning margin. C-N scored first but failed to make the conversion. With the score 6-0, Clarence Story dashed around left end for an M.C. score as the M. C. fans roared. Renfro calmly booted the ball through the uprights, and at the end of the half it was M. C. 7, C-N 6. At the beginning of the second quarter the Scots added their second score. Davis passed to Bill Owenby who raced 18 yards for the score. Renfro once again booted the point. With 1:03 left in the game, C-N scored to make it 14-12. Tailback Al Graves, the hero of the C-N cause, tried to run it over for two points and enable the Eagles to salvage a tie. With a wide open path to the goal line, Graves slipped in the mud 5 yards shy of the goal line. M. C. then ran out the clock and when it was over, the students, team, and coaches went wild.

The football season is over and gone, but the wonderful memories of the Carson-Newman game will linger forever. To the coaches and team, the student body says, "Thanks for a tremendous game, for fighting and never giving up. If you tackle life as you tackled the Eagles nothing but success will come your way. Good Luck!"

In 1952, Hill was a defensive halfback for the Detroit Lions of the NFL, a team which that year went on to grab the world's professional football championship.

On August 25, 1959, Howard Tomlinson, of Norfolk, Virginia, was named an assistant football coach for the Scotties. Tomlinson distinguished himself at William and Mary College where he made All-Southern Conference. He played numerous positions including center, guard, and tackle. Tomlinson was graduated in June from W and M, where he played under our new head football coach Boyoson H. Baird.

BASKETBALL

This season brought the services of one of the most liked and well-known personalities of the campus. It is none other than our new head coach of the football and basketball teams, Boydson H. Baird. Coach Baird came to us after serving as head freshman football coach for seven years and five years as varsity basketball coach at W. and M.

He was graduated from Maryville College in 1941. He was basketball captain, President of the Student Body and was elected to "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities."

With the arrival of Baird, a new spirit and outlook on athletics has come to Maryville. Interest is being aroused and it seems that shortly the college's athletic program will make terrific strides in the sports scope. As all who know Coach Baird know, he is a man of genuine friendliness and as his ball players add emphatically, he handles each boy as an individual and shows deep interest in him.

Captain and Coach

The Starters

Coach Boydson Baird's Maryville Scotties appeared to be one of the smallest college teams on the floor, averaging slightly better than six feet. In the first seven contests, the Big Scots showed definite signs for a very successful season. Such high scorers as Captain Tom Morris, Bill Owenby, and Bob Carpenter made the Highlanders a sound scoring threat. On the all important defensive side, Fred Porter, Don Abbott, and George Herron loom as the best prospects. Rounding out the team are Keith Day, Bill Crisp, Tom Crawford, Clyde Flanagan, Bob Garrison, and Don Heatherly. The starting five include only one senior, Tom Morris, so that the outlook for the next few winters looks extremely promising.

As the annual goes to press, our Scots hold a 7-2 record. After 2 early losses, the team has won five in a row. Good scoring punch and a stout defense has enabled the Scots to move effectively against the taller opposition. The way the season is going, the M. C.'ers appear to be on the verge of one of the most successful cage seasons in many winters on the hill.

Though Maryville had an unsuccessful season in the won-lost department, the Scotties had a most pleasant season in regard to the Carson-Newman games. As usual the Scots went all out when the Eagles were the opponents. In the first game the Scotties clipped the Eagles to the tune of 11-10. The second game was just as close, but the Big Orange pulled out a 9-8 decision. Other wins during the season came at the expense of Tennessee Wesleyan 10-4 and Hiawassee 10-3.

Poor fielding and lack of hitting and pitching depth kept the Scots down all season. Bill Owenby and Clarence Story were standouts in a losing cause. The bright spot is that most of the team will be back for another season—a successful one, we hope!

BASEBALL, 1959

WRESTLING

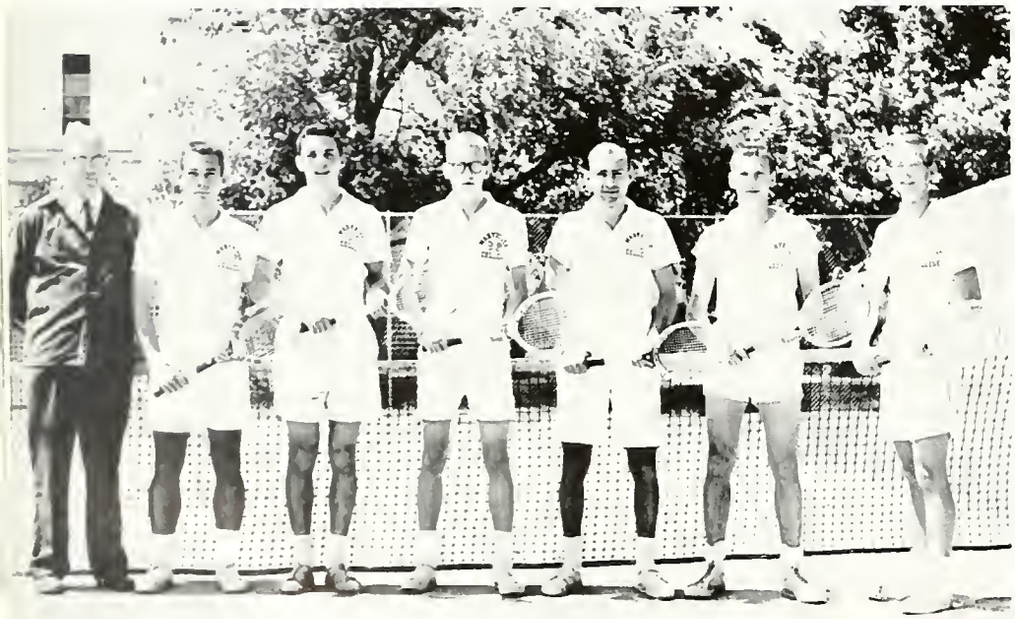
Maryville College matmen launched an eight-match schedule for the 1959-60 wrestling season when they tangled with a strong Knoxville "Y" team. Their schedule included:

December 12—Chattanooga—T
December 16—Chattanooga—T
January 21—Auburn—H
January 23—Appalachian State—H
January 30—Chattanooga
February 6—Birmingham Southern—H
February 13—Sewanee—T
February 26-27—SEC Tournament—H

TRACK

Last year the Scotties' track just did not have enough interest nor interested opponents. But this year more than thirty men have reported for training. An eight-game schedule awaits the team. If spirit is to be any judge of the outcome of the meets, the Scotties will be number one. This year Coach Tomlinson will be heading the boys.

TENNIS



Case, Poland, Roselli, Nooe, Mayer, Grote, Eberhard

Last season the Scotties' tennis team took to the courts labeled as a green and totally unexperienced team. The only returning player was Captain Tom Eberhard. The value of experience soon became apparent. The young team lost early close matches which they would have won if they had had some seasoning. Near the season's end the team started to show signs of definite progress. The boys started winning and with the victories came that much needed element —confidence. The tennis ladder included:

1—Tom Eberhard
2—Jeff Grote
3—Dick Mayer
4—Roger Nooe
5—George Roselli
6—George Poland

The double combinations were:

1—Poland-Eberhard
2—Grote-Mayer
3—Roselli-Nooe

The two lettermen for the season were George Poland and George Roselli. Though the team went winless as far as match victories were concerned, this year's team has all of last year's squad back so that the tennis picture looks very bright.

SOCCER

Carson-Newman	.	Maryville
Warren Wilson	. . 5	Maryville	2
Carson-Newman	. . 6	Maryville	3
Warren Wilson	. . . 5	Maryville	4

The Scotties soccer team provided much excitement during the past season by playing Carson-Newman under lights. Though our boys did not salvage a win, their steady improvement was clearly evident. The high scorers on the team included Bill Harman, Ho Keun Yum, and Victor Moran. Ed William, John Verdonis, and Bill Aring proved to be special standouts for the Scottie cause. The team is coached by Charles Taylor and is co-captained by Don Harward and Vic Moran. The bright spot lies in the fact that the team will lose only two men next season.

INTRAMURALS

One of the most enjoyed pastimes for men and women at Maryville is the Intramural Program. On the football field, basketball court, and baseball diamond, the societies and other teams compete in the various sports. Some of the events include football, volleyball, basketball, track, baseball, and tennis. As the annual goes to press, Chi Beta is leading Theta Epsilon in the race for the Women's Intramural Trophy, which Chi Beta won last year. Alpha Sigma reigned over the sports parade last year by beating Kappa Phi in the football "Stinkin' Shoe" game, which they took again this year. But the champions of the football title were the Chinese Bandits. For the first time an All-Star game was played. The other teams selected an All-Star team to meet the Chinese Bandits under the lights. The All-Stars could not contain the Bandits as the town team romped to a 21-0 victory. In the struggle for the Men's Intramural Trophy Kappa Phi was out in front.
